33 south to 78 east to 95 north and stay to the left two lanes for the eastern spur of 95 north heading towards the Lincoln Tunnel. From 95 north eastern spur take exit 15X and follow road going through a toll booth. Follow the road around to the second traffic light and make a right onto New County Rd. Stay in right lane to immediately take ramp for County Rd towards Jersey City follow road for a mile or two and on the right hand side will be the entrance to the rail yard which will have a white sign saying Norfolk Southern which will be directly across from a yellow United States Postal Service truck entrance and exit sign.

Once you pull into the yard proceed to the blue garage which is a big scanner. Drive slowly through it and drive towards the toll booths where you will enter in your load and driver information. Once that is completed and the gate opens proceed forward and take a left over the tracks and then make another left and stage your trailer along the tracks you just crossed.

To leave, drive back across the tracks and immediately stay to the right to drive through a different smaller blue garage. Again, proceed slowly then drive up to the exit toll booths. Enter your driver information and once the gate opens proceed the exit. If headed to Meadowlands hub MEANJ take a left out of the rail yard and proceed straight for a mile or two and bare to the right on County Ave. Meadowlands MEANJ will be about a mile or two on you left hand side. If you need to get back to 95, take a left out of the rail yard and proceed straight for a mile or two and continue straight for New County rd. Once you complete the ramp and straighten out you will come to a stop light where you will need to make a left turn onto Seaview Dr. which will wrap you back around to 95 New Jersey Turnpike.
